However, the presence of terminal hair in all locations does not necessarily convey the same significance. It is safe for children and yes it is safe for pregnant or lactating mothers. The consequences are lethal to sporting careers and reveal human failings that reflect the deadly sins—greed and pride.