may cause orthostatic hypotension or syncope especially with first dose, if dosage is increased or an antihypertensive drug or a phosphodiesterase-5 inhibitor is added to the treatment regimen.

the character is a bit plain, but his emotional makeup is exactly needed for a discussion of this type.